Advertising requests, once approved and payment received, are non-refundable product purchases. OKOTA offers advertising services as a benefit to members and the community; however, we cannot guarantee a target number of ‘views’ on social media or public response to our other advertising platforms. A request for available audience-reach data may be made for social media and member email products within 5-7 business days of the advertising posts.

“I agree to provide the advertising content for use through OKOTA media platforms in accordance with state and federal law, prohibiting copyright infringement.” (Images, text, logos must be your original work or you must have the permission of the copyright holder for this express purpose).

“I agree to the purchase conditions whereby OKOTA may deny my request for advertising with their media platforms, if they deem such content as outside the scope of occupational therapy professional interests or contrary to the OKOTA mission statement in any way, and I do agree to comply with the decision of their board as final.”
